

Jacquée Paul

Jacquée Paul is a vocal major at Lincoln Park Performing Arts Charter School. She is in her Senior year.

Although she sings many genres, she mainly focuses on jazz, blues, and soul. Jacquée has sung with some of the best musicians in the region. She has been a guest performer with Billy the Kid and the Regulators, Rhythm Aces, Matt Barranti, Funky Fly Project, David Granati, Drew Pinchotti, John Hall, Howie Alexander, and Brian Edwards, She has sung in Nashville with Grammy Award Winner, Stacy Mitchhart. Jacquée has begun writing music and performing with her current band "Super Midnight", Super Midnight performed a showcase at the International Blues Challenge January 2020 in Memphis through an invitation from the Blues Society of Western Pennsylvania.

This past three summers Jacquelyn participated in the CMU Pre-College Program in 2019, and twice received the Berklee City Music Scholarship for their Aspire Summer Program in both 2020 and 2021. She is featured vocalist for Classical ensembles and both the Jazz Ensemble and the Jazz Choir. She has also performed in stage productions at Pittsburgh Musical Theatre and at the Lincoln Park Performing Arts Center.

She is currently planning her first recording project to include some original music along with collaborations and covers. Stay tuned!

